

2022-2023 PCHA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

President

Georgy Maskrey-Segesman (Professional) Owner/ Trainer Whitethorne, LLC. Imports and sells/leases top quality hunters and jumpers. Creator of American Tradition of Excellence Class. Hosts clinics with top industry professionals at her home farm. Has competed at the grand prix level in the U.S. and Canada with her jumpers and locally in the dressage world.

1st Vice President

Georgiana “Noopy” Rodrigues (Amateur) PCHA 1st Vice President and past President (1989-1990). First woman President. Has served on the PCHA Board for over 35 years. Member of the PCHA Executive Committee, Western and Reining Committee and Western and Reining Amateur Committee. Has shown western horses for most of her life. Was Chairman of the PCHA Jack and Linda Baker Reining Classic for the past 12 years and is now Co- Chair with Dana Avila. Along with Renee Baker, she has been on the Awards Committee for the past 10 years. She and Renee are responsible for ordering and designing the year end award buckles.

2nd Vice President

Devon Gibson (Professional) I've been involved in the hunter/jumper/equitation disciplines since I was a teenager. I started with Judy Martin and have worked with many trainers in the past 30 years. I've had success in showing and training top hunters and jumpers as well as equitation riders. I also am venturing into the reining world.

Secretary

Sally Hudson (Manager) PCHA member for 28 years. Served on PCHA Board and as Secretary for numerous years. Past Co-Chair and Vice-Chair of the Zone 10 Hunter Committee. Zone 10 Jumper Committee coordinator for Young Riders, Prix des States and Pony Jumper Championships. She has a degree in Agricultural Business Management. Holds licenses as USEF Jumper Judge and Steward, FEI Jumper and Vaulting Steward. Sally has been associated with the horse show industry for the past 32 years as a show secretary and manager. Currently produces her shows at Sonoma Horse Park in Petaluma, CA. Enjoys working on the PCHA Board and Zone 10 Committee.

Treasurer

Gina Groth (Amateur) Amateur Owner exhibitor on the PCHA Circuit. Has been an owner/rider in shows for over 35 years. Winner LAHSA, Foxfield, PCHA Adult Horsemanship Class Finals and PHA West Equitation Championships. Graduate of California State University-Northridge with a degree in Business administration and a specialty in accounting

Hunter/ Jumper Directors

Lindsay Archer (Professional) After growing up riding in Northern California, my husband and I started Shady Lane Farm, a successful training stable in the SF East Bay. We focus primarily on jumpers, but we also breed a few young horses every year. We value both top-level competition as well as an affordable way to start young horses and riders. I am motivated to be on the PCHA board to give back to our horse community that has given me so much over the past 20 years. I believe that we live in one of the most beautiful places in the world, and we have the potential to host some of the best horse shows in the world. I hope that through PCHA, we can work to promote better sport as well as work to make the entry level end of our sport more affordable

Archibald Cox, III (Professional) PCHA President for numerous years. Birthdate December 28, 1967. Graduated 1991 Drew University (B.A. Political Science). (1992-2000) Assistant Trainer Karen Healey Stables. (2001-present) Brookway Stables, Los Angeles, CA. Trainer of both junior (14 & Under) and amateur (35 & over) PCHA Medal Finals winners, CPHA Medal Finals winners, LAHSA Medal Finals (Jr) winner, USEF Horse of the Year Champions, PCHA Horse of the Year Champions. Circuit Champions at Thermal/ Coachella Horse Shows both hunter and jumper. Licensed USEF Judge and Steward. Serves on Board of USEF and Washington International Horse Show. Statement of Purpose: I have a desire to be part of the process which leads our sport and what is in the best interest of both horse and rider at all levels.

Emily Esau Williams (Professional) I was raised in San Diego County and competed at PCHA shows through my junior and professional career in the Hunter/Jumper community. I have ridden and coached multiple PCHA Year End and Medal Final Champions. I am currently a member of the CPHA board. I would like to be involved in the continuing growth and improvement of our sport on the Pacific Coast.

Hap Hansen (Professional) Trainer for over 40 years. Has business in Rancho Santa Fe, CA. PCHA Grand Prix Rider of the Year 1984,1987, 1990, 1991, 1994, 1995. Has been inducted into the show jumping hall of fame as well as the show hunter hall of fame.

Karen Healey (Professional) I began my professional career working for George Morris at Hunterdon, following that I worked at Boulder Brook and Tewsbury. I moved to California in 1981 and began my business at the Los Angeles Equestrian Center. In the following years I have developed many successful riders. Since coming to California my riders have won over 100+ medal finals including ASPCA Maclay National Finals and the USET Talent Search Finals. I hold a USEF “R” rated judging license and have judged some of the most prestigious shows in the country including Devon Horse, Hampton Classic and the USEF Pony Finals.

Sean Leckie (Professional) I am a young professional with a competitive show barn in Orange County, spent most of my junior career in California with Leslie Steele. Then turned pro in 2014, spent a few years in New York working for Heritage Farms and Mclain Ward before moving back to California pursuing my dream of having a top show barn on the West Coast.

Karli Postel-Schroeder (Professional) Assistant Trainer to Archie Cox at Brookway Stables. 2017 WCHR Southwest Region Developing Pro Champion. 2017 WCHR National Reserve Champion Developing Pro. 2018 WCHR National Developing Pro Champion. 2018 West Coast Spectacular Champion. Member of the Postel Family

Jaime Krupnick (Amateur) I competed as a top Junior rider and after a 20-year hiatus from the sport, returned 6 years ago to compete as an amateur. I currently compete in the Amateur Owner Hunter division, Adult Equitation division and enjoy Hunter Derbies on my horse Conux. Professionally, I have owned and operated an event production company for over 15 years and enjoy producing high level events. I am also enjoying my latest career in real estate at a top firm in Westlake Village, specializing in horse properties.

Peggy Munkdale (Amateur) I have ridden and competed 35+ years and I have always enjoyed what the show world has offered me and I believe it is important to give back. I served on the NorCal Hunter Jumper board for over ten years as Secretary. I would like to continue to support our sport in any way I can. I have been competing as an amateur for over 20 years in the AO Hunters, AO Jumpers and Equitation divisions. I would like to support the Amateur voice with the PCHA and be an advocate for all of the Amateur divisions.

Robin Serfass (Amateur) I have been a PCHA member for over 50 years. I have managed horse shows for over 35 years and served on the PCHA Board for over 20 years. A cum laude graduate of UCLA and have owned and operated Equestrian Enterprises, INC since 1989. I have competed as a junior and amateur owner hunter/jumper competitor and won PCHA championships. I am also a USEF and FEI licensed Steward.

Steve Hankin (Show Manager) I have a long business career focused on running service businesses. I was a partner at McKinsey and Co., the international consulting firm. I was the Chief Revenue Officer at the Starwood Hotels and a Managing Partner at Starwood Capital Group, a leading real estate private equity firm. Currently, I serve as the Managing Partner of Apex Equisport, the group that recently acquired the former HITS shows in Thermal and Arizona, and will oversee the operations of the new Desert International Horse Park. My Family has been involved in a range of equestrian sorts for a lifetime. My favorite activity is supporting my wife Lisa and her efforts as a rider, owner and advocate of brining along young hunters. My brother is one of the leading owners of steeplechase horses in the county. As for me, I just starting riding and so far, am only good at falling.

Western Directors

Renee Baker (Professional) I have been riding all breeds of western and English type horses for the past 45 years. I have been judging western and English open horse shows for the past 35 years and designing trail courses for the past 30 years. I am currently a registered judge with USEF in the western division, reining division and Morgan horse division. I also hold an ETI judges card. I have also served on the Board of Directors for PCHA for the past 22 years as well as on the Western Committee. I have been vice-chairman of the western council for USEF, also serving on the awards committee for USEF. I have been on these committees for 23 plus years. Also, a CPHA Western Director, along with being a past CRHA Director. Carry membership cards in the following organizations: USEF, PCHA, NRHA, IAHA, AQHA, PCQHA, NRHP, QHA Professional Horseman, CRHA, CPHA-western, AMHA, ETI and NSBA.

George Chatigny (Professional) I am the General Manager of the Los Angeles Equestrian Center (LAEC) and have been active with horses since 1975 in a myriad of capacities. I specialize in the hunter, jumper, breed and western disciplines, production and management of horse shows, served as an official, director, or committee member of local, regional and national equestrian organizations. I am a licensed FEI Jumping and USEF C-1 Steward, past president of the Western Horse Show Exhibitor Association and a past vice president of the CPHA foundation, League of Agricultural and Equine centers.

Poncie Hermann (Professional) Owner/operator of Track One Events, an event management exhibitor and ranch owner. An active horse show secretary for the past 19 years in multiple rated horse shows throughout the country. Organizational partner in several fundraising events directly related with the equestrian industry

Pamela Turnbull (Professional) Professional trainer for 30+ years. Worked for PCHA office 10 years. On the board for numerous years. Multiple championships in PCHA, AQHA and APHA. Top 10 at all 3 worlds.

Melissa Moore (Amateur) Been showing on PCHA circuit since the 70's. Currently top 5 select world and ranch riding and many trail and pleasure championships.

Becky Martin (Show Manager) PCHA member for over 20 years. PCHA Board (2012- present), Show Manager PCHA/LSAC (2003-present). Horse lover (all breeds, divisions and disciplines), especially enjoys showing in the Trail Division. Graduated with California Teaching Credential in 1975. Employee at a year-round camp and counselor at Lazy J Ranch in Malibu (1963-1989). Works for City of Rancho Palos Verdes (1975-present). Hobbies include riding horses in the show arena and on mountain made trail rides, house sitting whiles owners are on vacations and enjoying time with family and friends.

