PURPOSE

The purpose of this manual is to provide guidelines for the qualification of Pacific Coast Horse Shows Association approved horse shows and to explain the point system for yearend championship awards. Actual rules are presented only where PCHA requirements differ from those of the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) or to clarify existing USEF Rules as applied to PCHA approved horse shows.

Except where noted herein, the USEF Rule Book will govern the conduct of PCHA shows. If a problem arises at a show that cannot be solved by interpreting the rules to the letter, the solution to be adopted should lie in a principle which follows as nearly as possible the spirit of the rules

Section 4. All show committees, show management, and other responsible persons are accountable for any violation of the rules stated herein. Any violation reported to the PCHA by a steward, other official, participant, or other interested party that is supported by proper evidence will be investigated and acted upon under the rules and regulations of this organization in an effort to improve the quality and safety of horse shows in the future.

4. Rights of Appeal: Because of the time limits in cases specified in '3.' above, shows wishing to appeal to the entire Board of Directors may do so only if their application was received postmarked at least 180 days prior to the first day of the show. Events with Rule Exemption(s) Upon written application, including all necessary and pertinent specifics, to the PCHA Board of Directors at least 120 days prior to an event, certain exemptions to Association rules may be approved at the Board's discretion. GUIDELINES

Section 7. The following material is presented as a guideline to horse show managements and committees to help them with the preparation for trail classes.

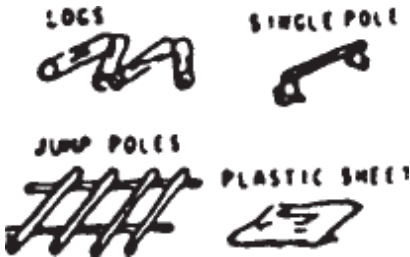

- A. It should be pointed out that this Association feels that Trail Horse obstacles and courses should be chosen in such a way as to demonstrate the control, flexibility and calmness of the ideal Trail Horse.
- B. "Horror" courses and impossible obstacles are of no benefit, sometimes resulting in injury to horse and rider and actually increase the burden to those who must judge. All courses are subject to the approval of the judge; the judge has the responsibility to eliminate any obstacles which he feels are dangerous to horse and rider. It shall also be the judge's prerogative to alter any obstacles set up in violation of the rules.
- C. No course can be used twice except in divisional classes (i.e. Mares, Stallions and Geldings) which MUST be identical. It is suggested that there be a minimum of six obstacles in any Trail Horse class.
- D. Management MUST give particular thought to the difficulty of courses as related to the type of class offered. [See Correct Sequence of Trail Classes suggested above]. In each session the courses are to be built with the most difficult course first, and "built down" to the simplest course to be held as the last class in the session.)
- E. Unacceptable Trail Obstacles:

No dismounted or lead-over jump is allowed.

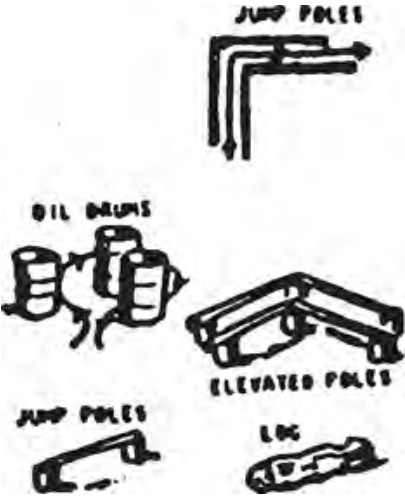

Must not be asked to drag or carry. Except in Ranch Trail Division
No Tires, Animals, Hides, PVC Pipe, Dismounting, Hay Bales, Rocking or Moving Bridge, Water Box with Floating or Moving Parts, Flames, Dry Ice, Fire Extinguishers, Logs or Poles
Elevated in such a manner that permits such to roll. Ground Tie.

Section 8. Gates Gates should be constructed with a minimum of 60" from the top of the gate to the ground and a minimum width of 4'0". Any material is satisfactory, but pipe, as illustrated is long-lasting and will not tip or sag due to cross brace at the bottom.

Section 9. Walk Overs May be constructed from a large variety of objects. Single Walk Overs may be a maximum of 16" in height. Multiple combinations, maximum height 10", minimum width 20" between poles. In multiple combinations rolling poles should not be used. RULE XII - MEDAL AND SPECIAL CLASSES

PART I GENERAL

Section 1. The following medal classes and special classes are sanctioned by the Pacific Coast Horse Shows Association, Inc. No other medal classes or special classes are sanctioned by this organization.

Section 2. All medal class and special class participants, trainer and horses must be current members in good standing with the PCHA (USEF class excepted).

Section 3. All trainers of PCHA Jack & Linda Baker riders and all trainers of PCHA Trail Classic riders must be professional members of PCHA.

Section 4. All medal classes and special classes may only be held at PCHA approved shows (USEF and PCHA/Jack and Linda Baker classes excepted).

Section 5. All Hunter/Jumper amateurs who exhibit at PCHA shows are responsible for having a USEF Amateur Card (see also "Western Amateur Status") available if asked by the show management or the show steward. Regardless of whether a person has a USEF Amateur Card or not, any adult who is advertised as a trainer or instructor for horse show purposes, or who regularly acts as a trainer, assistant trainer and/or instructor for horse show purposes, or who otherwise conducts himself/herself as a professional horseperson for horse show purposes, whether or not he/she received remuneration, is ineligible to ride in any PCHA-sanctioned Medal or special class.

Western Amateur Status Anyone who exhibits as an amateur at a PCHA- sanctioned Western horse show must be in possession of a PCHA Amateur Card or an Amateur Card issued by any nationally recognized breed association or an NRHA Non-Pro Card. Upon receipt of evidence that a person might be in violation of the rule, the PCHA Board will write a letter asking the said person to respond. Based upon the response and any other pertinent data, the Board will issue a ruling

Section 6. For Jack & Linda Baker qualifying classes, a $10 per entrant fee will be paid to the Association by show management. The show management shall not charge each entrant a class fee greater than that charged for any other class with no prize money plus $10. 70% of these fees will be used to help fund the Jack & Linda Baker Finals.

Section 7. TECHNICAL DELEGATES - At every PCHA-sanctioned medal final, there must be a PCHA Technical Delegate ("TD"). The TD will be appointed by the PCHA Board of Directors. The TD will be responsible for interfacing with horse show management, officials, exhibitors, judges, course designers and announcers. The Technical Delegate has the responsibility of insuring that the technical requirements of the class are met, but not interfere in any way - or make suggestions - as to the judging of the class. In case of a dispute, the TD's decision is final. Show management will be responsible for TD's travel/lodging and for payment of TD's fee of $400.00 per day minimum to defray TD's expenses (except Western finals/specials).

The TD's responsibilities include:

To have no conflict of interest regarding show management, officials or exhibitors. The TD shall have no other duties at the show hosting the Finals nor shall the TD be an exhibitor, owner, rider or trainer at said show. A technical delegate is not to be used as a ringmaster, announcer, timer or Judge, or in any other position not related to his/her proper duties at the competition where he/she is officiating. A Technical Delegate cannot own or operate any business as a vendor at the same competition where he/she is officiating.

(Any doubt as to eligibility or conflict of interest of a Technical Delegate at a particular show, if not satisfied by reading the PCHA rule as stated herein, can be referred to USEF rules pertaining to Technical Delegates. Any responsibilities for a Technical Delegate not listed herein may be referred to USEF rules.)

To meet with show management in a timely fashion before the event to review the class schedule and class specifications. The TD will check lighting and time schedule and will see that as many variables and problems as possible are foreseen and resolved. The TD should coordinate with the horse show office and the PCHA office to ensure that all competitors and their trainers are current PCHA members.

To be present at the drawing of the class order. At this time, the TD will answer any questions posed by exhibitors and will provide written material, where applicable. The TD will attend social functions held in connection with the Final.

To arrange daily meetings, if necessary, with the class officials to review details of daily class specifications such as course design (material, type of course), judging (scoring system, "attempt" rule), score-keeping and announcing (ensuring that judges are on separate channels overseeing scoring system and having backup to eliminate errors).

The TD is to review and be completely familiar and comfortable with each of the necessary functions and personnel assignments associated with each class, such as course design, height and width of the fences, footing, announcing, timing, communication, protest handling, questions from officials, lame horse or sick rider situations, medical personnel, equipment and response, veterinary procedures and appeals procedures.

(See Medal Finals Rule XII, Section 9): There must be a designated schooling area. This area must be supervised, and jumps must be flagged. (Layout similar to PCHA 14 & Under Horsemanship; see Sec. 2.)

To collect copies of judges score sheets and arrange with show photographer for a winner's photo to be sent to the PCHA office immediately. To ask the winner to write a one-page story to be included on the PCHA website.

To be available in the schooling and back gate area during all rounds of Finals to answer any questions. TD should talk to management regarding schooling steward. To ensure that the scoring has been provided for but will not score or act as score-keeper. As a representative of the PCHA, the TD should dress appropriately for all occasions.

Section 8. PCHA will not sanction any show over the same dates, within 100 miles, of any PCHA sanctioned Medal Finals or Special Classes. If a manager appeals this decision, only with a 2/3 majority vote of the Board of Directors will permission be granted regardless of the USEF rating. If PCHA permission is granted, it will be on a year to year basis only.

Section 9. MEDAL FINALS.

1. There must be a physical draw for order. Steward or Technical delegate must be present. The time and place must be announced. Official or designee may draw for riders not present. (Special welcome party for exhibitors when possible.)

2. All Finals competitions must include a course walk in the schedule for judges and competitors to walk a course. The minimum time for this course walk is 15 minutes.
3. All judges must be required to walk the course. (At this time the Course Designer and T.D. must be present to confer with judges.)
4. Managers must notify any prospective judges of the requirement that a judge is not to officiate in more than two similar age medal finals in California in one calendar year.
5. There must be a designated schooling area. This area must be supervised, and jumps must be flagged. (Layout similar to PCHA 14 and Under Horsemanship. See Sec. 2)
6. Anyone can ride in the designated schooling area on a medal finalist horse.
7. Starting thirty (30) minutes prior to the competition and while the medal finals class is in progress, medal horses may jump in the designated schooling area only. This rule includes the finals warm-up round. If a medal competition horse jumps in an area other than the designated schooling area during that time, the medal class exhibitor will get a zero score for that round.

Section 3. The person reporting the alleged violation and/or the protester and/or the Association may present evidence in support of the claim of violation, and the accused person may also present evidence in support of his case, each side being allowed to cross-examine the other's witnesses, and to comment on the other's witnesses, and to comment on the other's evidence. Section 6. After conducting the hearing and/or reviewing all information submitted, in lieu of a hearing, all persons other than the hearing committee and its counsel, if any, must be asked to leave the room so that the Board of Directors, or the appropriate committee, shall render its decision and assess whatever penalty, if any, that they deem appropriate, as provided in these Rules and Regulations.

Section 9. The President, or any other officer properly acting in his place, shall determine promptly whether or not a continuance should be granted, giving consideration to the intent of the Association to prosecute violations in a fair and equitable manner, and to afford every person a full and just hearing. The Association shall have the authority to order a continuance upon its own initiative .

Section 10. Any party to a hearing, including the Association, may request in writing, to be furnished copies of all documents, the names of witnesses and the substance of their testimony, and the nature and description of all other evidence to be presented at the hearing. Said request must be made twenty (20) days prior to the hearing, and the information requested must be provided, by each person or entity upon whom the request is served, ten (10) days before the hearing.

Section 11. If any party, when requested pursuant to Section 10, fails to reveal any evidence, then the hearing committee may exclude such evidence from the hearing, or allow the other party a continuance, if requested, for time to obtain and prepare rebuttal, or neither of the above, if the hearing committee believes the result is fair and just under the circumstances and does not deprive the other party of due process of law.

PART III - PENALTIES

RACHEL JOSEPH ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

We all know how much Rachel loved this sport and loved her daughter Juliette. She worked tirelessly to make sure Juliette always had a "catch" ride. Whether a horse or pony you could always find Rachel running from ring to ring saddle in hand getting her daughter on making sure she was on time for all the trainers she committed to that day. Rachel was always seen working, rarely did you see her sitting or just hanging around. Every minute was dedicated to promoting her daughter, making sure Juliette would always have horses in her life

We would like to dedicate this award to a "parent" that shows the most outstanding support and dedication towards this sport and their child. One that is seen like Rachel, doing hard work for their daughter or son. Often times the parents get left out and if you think about it, if it were not for the hard working parents these kids would not have these opportunities.

CARMA AWARDS
